PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the National Shut-Ins Association annually sponsors the first Sunday in June as International Shut-Ins Day; and

WHEREAS, the object of this observance is to encourage remembrance of the sick and disabled whether they be civilians or war veterans; and

WHEREAS, this special day has served thousands by encouraging them to overlook and overcome their handicap in times of distress and discouragement;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Sigurd Anderson, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim and establish the first Sunday of June as and urge all citizens, neighbors and friends of shut-ins in the State of South Dakota to remember the shut-ins of South Dakota in acts, by visits, cards or other indications of remembrance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 24th day of May, 1952.
